Office Volunteers

Volunteers should be available from 9.45 to 12.15 one morning per week to staff the office.

Volunteers must be computer literate and able to receive and process telephone requests for transport from our clients. It is important to record accurately each day's business both on the computer and in the diary. Full training will be given.

A professional telephone manner, patience and attention to detail are essential as many clients have hearing/communication problems.

Health

Please give details of any condition, physical or medical, which may affect your ability to staff the office now or in the future.....
